

FARM BUREAU BANK – RETURN OF MISTAKEN DISTRIBUTION FORM

Use this form to return a qualifying mistaken distribution from your Farm Bureau Bank Health Savings Account (HSA). IRS rules provide that a return of a mistaken HSA distribution in accordance with applicable requirements will result in the distribution amount not being included in gross income under IRC section 223(f)(2) or subject to the 20% additional tax under IRC section 223(f)(4) or an excise tax on excess contributions under section 4973(a)(5). Please see IRS Notice 2004-50, Q&A 37 or consult with your tax advisor regarding your individual situation.

The account owner must repay the mistaken distribution to the HSA no later than April 15 following the first year the account owner knew or should have known the distribution was a mistake. A return of a mistaken distribution is not included in gross income, is not subject to the 20% additional tax, and the repayment is not subject to the excise tax on excess contributions. The repayment will not be reported as a contribution on Form 5498-SA.

Forward your completed form along with a check made payable to Farm Bureau Bank in the amount of the mistaken distribution.

Please write your HSA account number in the memo portion of your check, along with the words “Mistaken Distribution.”
